

Assembling your Web 2.0 research toolbox – some links

SLAV Conference, 4 May 2007

Camilla Elliott

Network Resource Manager/ Head Teacher-Librarian

St Joseph's College, Mildura

www.linkingforlearning.com

celliot@sjcmda.vic.edu.au

Sources of RSS and newsfeeds

2RSS.Com	http://www.2rss.com/
Edna	http://www.edna.edu.au
syndic8.com	http://www.syndic8.com/
Yahoo News	http://news.yahoo.com/rss
Microsoft Feeds Directory	http://www.microsoft.com/rss/

Sample

You can subscribe to this feed by right-clicking the text below, copying the shortcut, and pasting the URL into the feed aggregator of your choice.

 Subscribe to this feed.

Social Bookmarking

Furl	http://www.furl.net
Del.icio.us	http://del.icio.us
Simpy	http://www.simpy.com/
Citeulike – academic	http://www.citeulike.org
Library Thing	http://www.librarything.com/

Aggregators

Bloglines	http://www.bloglines.com/
Syndic8	http://www.syndic8.com/
Internet Explorer 7.0

For interest – if you like UTube < <http://www.youtube.com/> > you might like this-
Teacher Tube <http://www.teachertube.com>

Background reading

Harmelen, M. v. (n.d.). Briefing paper on Web 2.0 technologies for content sharing:. Retrieved April 15, 2007, from Franklin Consulting: http://franklin-consulting.co.uk/Web2_Webinar.html#Web2_Webinar

Richardson, W. (2004). Blogging and RSS – The "What's It?" and "How To" of Powerful New Web Tools for Educators, Vol. 11 No. 1 – Jan/Feb 2004. Retrieved April 20, 2007, from Multimedia & internet @ schools: <http://infotoday.com/MMSchools/jan04/richardson.shtml>

Richardson, W. (2005). RSS: a quick start guide for educators. Retrieved April 20, 2007, from Weblogg-ed: <http://weblogg-ed.com/wp-content/uploads/2006/05/RSSFAQ4.pdf>